

The Mahoning Dispatch

ADVERTISING BRINGS RESULTS

When the columns of The Mahoning Dispatch are used, this statement has been verified by thousands of pleased patrons in past years. For the small advertiser the classified column offers opportunities that none can afford to overlook.

VOL. XLIV. NO. 42.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1921.

$1.50 A YEAR. (Outside Ohio, $2.00)

YOUR JOB PRINTING ORDER

Is certain to receive prompt and careful attention when placed with The Dispatch job printing department in charge of artistic workmen who spare no pains in making every piece of work handled meet the approval of the most exacting purchaser.

What Federal Reserve Membership Means

As a member of the FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM this Bank is able to furnish customers with the very best banking service and facilities, it has behind it the cooperation and strength of the entire FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM with resources of close upon ($6,000,000,000.00) SIX BILLION DOLLARS.

Whatever banking service you may require, you will find it to your advantage to deal with this old-established Bank.

The Farmers National Bank

Canfield, Ohio

THE MUSICAL COMEDY

"The New Minister"

Will be given by the choirs of BERLIN CENTER and DEERFIELD M. E. CHURCHES in

College Chapel

CANFIELD

Wednesday Evening February 2

Don't miss it! Catchy music. Amusing situations. Entertaining from beginning to end.

A High Grade Investment

If you are looking for an investment where your principal will always be safe, always earning a regular rate of interest and always available without depreciation, you will find a savings account in this institution exactly suited to your requirements.

Five per cent interest on savings deposits.

The Farmers Savings & Loan Co.

Canfield, Ohio

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS

We have all the tax receipts of Canfield Township.

We have all the tax receipts of Canfield Village

We trust that all the tax payers of the village and township may find it convenient to pay at this bank.

Much time can be saved by paying your taxes here.

TIME SAVED IS MONEY SAVED.

THE FARMERS NATIONAL BANK

Canfield, Ohio

Washingtonville

Ruth, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. King died Friday morning from an abscess in the head after an illness of five days. Ruth was a bright little girl, a great favorite among her young associates. She was a member of the Cradle Roll of the Lutheran Sunday school. She is survived by her parents, two sisters, Maria and Mary, two brothers, Percy and John. Funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. John Staley. The pall bearers were Mary Begiolette, Mary Needham, Thelma Richards and Pearl Ward. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Interment in Oakdale cemetery, Washingtonville. The family have the sympathy of many friends. Out of town relatives who attended the funeral included Mrs. Samuel Platt, daughter Elizabeth and sons Kenneth and Edward, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wyman of Youngstown, Mr. and Mrs. James and William King of Salem, Robert Holt and son Joe of Windber, Pa.

Mrs. Wm. Walters, formerly of this place, submitted to an operation in the hospital at Canton last week. She is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Hazel Stouffer was hostess to members of the Woman's Home Circle last Wednesday evening. The social hours were spent in needlework and a good social time was had. A dainty luncheon was served before adjournment. Invited guests included Miss Edith Roller, Mrs. Ray Stouffer and Mrs. Samuel Atkinson. The club will be entertained in the home of Mrs. Charlie Taylor next Wednesday evening.

Through the courtesy of the Erie railroad quite a number of cars of slag have been turned over to the village for road repairs. A petition is out for subscriptions to help have the slag hauled on the roads. Quite a number of citizens from here and also Leetonia have donated liberally. This winter. It is to the interest of all who travel to make this a good road. Your donation will be gratefully accepted by the road committee.

Dr. Huber of Lakewood will preach at the Lutheran church Sunday evening at which time communion services will be held. All are welcome.

Revival meetings will be held at E. Church Friday evening with good success. On Sunday morning the attendance at Sunday school was 114. Twenty-one members were received into the church and several baptisms. These services were conducted by the regular pastor. Let the good work continue.

Miss Ruth Bossett was entertained at dinner Sunday in the home of Miss Kathryn Wilson.

Pete Queen and Richard Dunn started to work at the Pat Kelley coal mine this week.

Work at the coal mines in this vicinity has been dull for the past month.

Mrs. Howard Ingram and son Fred of Salem spent Sunday at the home of Harry Hartzell.

Mrs. Emmet Carlisle of East Palestine spent Sunday here at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Freed and sons of Youngstown were here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, over Sunday.

Miss Edith Roller was a Salem visitor Tuesday.

Paul Vignon, Russell Sanders and Harry McNeal rode the Foresters' goat Friday evening.

Louis Evans has bought the farm of Miss Emma Bates, south of town and will take possession the first of April.

Ed Herrman has accepted a position as foreman in a moulding shop in Uniontown, Pa. He left Saturday to take charge of his new work.

Thomas Mills, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Mills, was severely scalded when he upset a pot of hot tea. His arm and side were badly burned.

Miss Morris Reese is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Davis.

Arthur Johnson is filling his ice house.

Harry Rickerson is doing a good business at his new cobbling and repair shop.

Mrs. Anna Culler and Mrs. Thos. Dairymple attended the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Ball in East Palestine Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eyster, son Lee, daughters Mrs. James Atkinson and Mrs. Manley De Jane, and Mrs. Mary Brain attended the funeral of a relative in Canfield Sunday afternoon.

The last winter sale of 'ladies', misses' and children's trimmed hats at $2.98 and $1.98. All trimmings half price at Brain's Millinery Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Davis entertained at dinner Sunday, J. M. Davis and family, Wm. Barton and family, Mr. John Whitaker and Mr. and Mrs. Morell Weikart and son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Weikart had a family gathering in their home Sunday. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Weikart and family of Leetonia, Mr. Weikart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis and daughter.

Mrs. Nancy Boston of Alliance visited among relatives here this week.

Mrs. David Kennedy visited her husband in the Alliance hospital, Sunday. His condition remains unchanged.

David Weikart had a pipeless heater installed in his home.

Miss Sarah Simpson left Monday for Cleveland to enter Mt. Sinai hospital to take a course in training for a nurse.

Frank Crawford of Detroit called on his mother, Mrs. Kate Crawford, at the home of Miss Carrie Woods, Saturday.

Miss Birdella Stouffer underwent an operation for appendicitis in Cleveland last Wednesday. She is reported as getting along nicely.

Fred Boston was laid up several days with blood poison in a hand. He was able to resume work Tuesday at the Buckeye Engine Co., Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O'Day, Miss Sarah Will and Ralph Griffith were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boston.

Mrs. Leon Vignon, who has been seriously ill, was taken to the Salem hospital on Tuesday for an X-ray examination.

Mrs. Lizzie Irwin spent the week-end with Mrs. Wm. Weikart. She will return to her home in the west this week.

Members of the Spear family attended the funeral of a relative in Lisbon last week.

The $50,000 damage action, which was brought in the courts of Mahoning county some months ago by Mrs. Lorraine Morris of Lisbon, against the Erie Railroad Co. for the unlawful death of her husband, Ross Morris, has through the plaintiff's attorneys, been settled out of court for $10,000. Ross Morris was in the employ of the Erie as brakeman on the Niles and Lisbon train, when he met his death in an accident at Washingtonville, Feb. 13, 1919. He undertook to uncouple a car from the train and finding the knuckle on the uncoupler broken, stepped in between the cars and was reaching across to uncouple the car, when his foot caught in a brace and he was thrown between the cars and killed.

ISLAND

Jan. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Zeigler and sons John and Dale of Aberdeen, S. Dak., are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Zeigler, and other relatives in this vicinity.

John Yoder and sister Mary spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Lehman.

David Klingensmith called on Glenn Everett and family Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Joel Blosser, who has been suffering from erysipelas for some time, is confined to her bed.

Edwin Weaver and family were Sunday guests of D. R. Lehman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Detrow and daughter Erma were entertained Sunday by Johnathan Richard and family.

Miss Nannie Swope is doing housework for Mrs. Penrose Schaeffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Zeigler and daughter Mary and Curtis Zeigler, and family were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Zeigler.

Misses Hannah, Edith and Anna Wenger called on J. M. Knopp and daughter Lizzie Sunday afternoon.

Miss Amelia Horst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Horst, of North Lawrence, and Wm. H. Gable of Wooster, were united in marriage at noon Sunday at the home of the bride's parents.

The following relatives from here attended the wedding: Phares, Merle, Emma and Iva Witmer, Ezra Knopp and family and Enos, Ezra and Ida Witmer. Mr. and Mrs. Gable, who left immediately on a wedding trip through Pennsylvania, have the best wishes of many friends in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Compton called on Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lehman, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Martin of Wooster, who spent several months in Canada, are guests of relatives here, Misses Lizzie Good and Lillian Calvin were in Youngstown Saturday.

John J. Martin and family of Columbiana called at S. R. Martin's, Sunday.

E. S. Knopp butchered a beef for Fred Brundage Friday which, dressed $48 pounds.

Mrs. Ezra Knopp and children and Enos, Merle and Miss Eva Witmer are spending a few days with relatives in Wayne county.

W. A. Walter of Greenford called on D. R. Lehman, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Showalter and daughter Esther were Sunday guests of Henry Lehman and family.

NEW ALBANY

Jan. 19.—The Loyal Sons and Daughters of Greenford Christian church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pow last Friday night. The evening was spent very pleasantly with games and music, after which a fine luncheon was served by the hostess.

John Dougherty and son Lawrence and Floyd Detrow attended the funeral of Earl Rhodes in Canfield Sunday afternoon.

Miss Holly Dougherty spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Capel of Salem.

Miss Mary Pow of Alliance spent the week-end here with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dougherty spent Friday in Salem.

Mrs. Anna Redinger spent Wednesday with Mrs. Emma Miller of Salem.

Ralph Slagle and family entertained the Twilight Club of the Ellsworth Road, Saturday night. An oyster supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cape and brother Roy of Salem and Misses Ariene and Holly Dougherty and brother, Gale, motored to Youngstown Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Marian Truxal have moved back to the village.

Russell Edge of Salem spent Sunday with Ed Zimmerman and family.

Parties hailing from Youngstown who figured in an auto wreck here a week ago Sunday evening have left the matter in the hands of the law to decide which of the drivers was in the wrong. It seems some drivers are not very generous in driving along the road but want all the road themselves while others are squeezed into the ditch.

Mr. Rowe of Washingtonville was a guest of the drivers was in the wrong.

Attorney Anthony Calvin and Theo. Johnson of Youngstown called at the home of J. S. Dougherty Sunday evening.

ROSEMONT

Jan. 19.—Curtis Greenawalt and family spent Sunday with relatives in Milton.

Mrs. Charlie Schieler visited in Youngstown several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brost visited in Canfield Sunday at the home of his father, Adam Brost.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Greenawalt visited at Charlie Meads in Jackson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Powers spent Friday at the home of her father in Milton.

C. E. Rose of Niles and J. W. Osborne of Milton visited at the home of Mrs. Frona Rose Sunday.

The play entitled "The Moonshiner's Daughter," will be given in Assembly hall Tuesday evening, Jan. 25.

Mrs. Amos Sigle spent a few days last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Crum, in Ellsworth Station.

Mrs. Ella Schieler and son, Bert, of Austintown visited friends here Sunday.

BOARDMAN

Jan. 19.—A daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. George Jones of Youngstown. Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Elizabeth Davis of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weaver have returned from a week's visit in Pittsburg.

Little Maud Fenton, who has been very ill, is much better.

George Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baldwin, sailed for France recently.

Within the last few months the M. E. church has received a number of members. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Alexander, who brought their church letters from the Evangelical church, Youngstown; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Creed and two sons from the M. E. Church, Rosemont; and Mrs. C. T. Agnew who transferred her membership from Westminster Presbyterian church, Youngstown.

Thursday afternoon the ladies of the M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. M. W. Arbuckle. After the business session a social time was enjoyed.

Boardman Auxiliary of the Red Cross was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Felch. Mrs. Steele of Newton Falls, who is vicariously remembered by the Boardman people on Miss Josephine McKelvey, former teacher of domestic science in our high school, was present and gave a very interesting talk on social welfare. She spoke from experience, having done considerable work among the foreign population of mill workers in western Pennsylvania.

The hostess served a dainty lunch. The next meeting will be Jan. 26 with Mrs. Anna McClurg and Mrs. Eyster.

Dr. H. S. Thorne and Miss Mayo were in Youngstown Monday.

N. A. Kaercher, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henley and Mrs. Chas. Zimmerman of Youngstown and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Hahn of Colorado called at H. C. Heintzelman's Friday evening.

Doctor of Brookfield, who fell and hurt himself a few weeks ago, is staying here with his son Archie. He is improving slowly.

Mrs. Sarah Kerr's arm is not improving very fast.

Miss Clarence Hallett, who was operated on in the city hospital, is home and improving nicely.

Boardman can boast of more basketball teams than any other place of its size. There are eight teams. The spades have two teams, the A. C. girls team, the high school has a boys' and a girls' team, the seventh and eighth grades have a boys' and girls' team and the fifth grade boys a team. The grade boys went to Austintown Friday evening, the three teams came out victorious. Quite a delegation from here went to Austintown Friday night.

Little Kyle visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kyle, of Canfield, Sunday.

Sunday afternoon callers at H. C. Heintzelman's were Mrs. A. P. Lloyd, Mrs. M. C. Rice and Ada Frye of Youngstown, C. L. Beard and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Elser of New Buffalo.

Jack Hallett has the largest wood pile in Boardman.

Mr. Culver and daughter of Warren called to see her brother, Mr. Hoover, Sunday afternoon.

Kenneth Heintzelman has been driving the school wagon for Paul Clemmons the last week.

W. A. Chambers has been serving on the grand jury for a couple of weeks.

Ellenore Cain is on the sick list.

Henry Sparrow was in Youngstown Tuesday.

BERLIN CENTER

Jan. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl and son Thurman were visitors at John Bardo's Sunday.

Emory Stalksmith and family were in Alliance Saturday.

Tilden Harmon and Eli Killie were Beloit visitors recently.

Ed Rakestraw and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rakestraw.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Cline entertained a party of friends at an oyster supper Wednesday evening.

Ward Burke and family and Joshua Carner of Rosemont visited at J. A. Schieler's Thursday evening.

At the meeting of the K. of P.'s Friday evening nine new members took degrees, after which an oyster supper was enjoyed by seventy of the boys.

Dallas Smith of Niles spent Sunday at James Cline's.

C. C. Cline, J. E. Heiser and C. M. Shively attended a sale in Canfield Saturday afternoon.

Friends here were sorry to hear of the death of Earl Rhodes of the Ellsworth-Canfield road. His wife, who was Miss Ola Goodman lived in Berlin Center several years and has the sympathy of many friends here.

Arthur Schieler is confined to the house with sciatic rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Smith of Niles visited friends here Sunday.

Will Shilling and family spent Sunday with his parents in Deerfield.

The farmers' institute held in the school auditorium last Friday and Saturday was well attended at every session. The Glee Club of the high school furnished music. The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. Church served dinner and realized a neat sum.

Miss Minnie Myers, teacher in the primary school, was unable to teach Monday on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shrader and children, Don and Sara, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert and Albert Miller of Alliance were entertained at the home of J. B. Bardo Sunday evening.

TURNER STREET

Jan. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brobst and son Eugene of Rosemont spent Sunday here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Brobst.

J. H. Reed and son Howard were in Youngstown Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Brick and son Billie were Sunday evening callers at H. E. Brobst's.

Mrs. Ensign Harding and Mrs. Perry Kimmel of Ohio's Crossing called at F. R. Ewing's, Wednesday.

Fue Cramer of North Jackson spent the last of the week with Adam Brobst and family.

Boys and girls of this street are enjoying the good skating.

A. L. Hensch ate his Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Adam Brobst.

NORTH LIMA

Jan. 19.—At the meeting of North Lima, grange Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Crouse who were among the representatives from Mahoning County Pomona Grange to the meeting of the Ohio State Grange in Cleveland last month gave a full report of the sessions of the Grange. Mrs. M. L. Beard, local lecturer, who also attended the state grange, gave a report of the lecturers' conferences which constituted a part of the regular sessions. A light luncheon was served after the meeting. Good music and a surprise feature by the young people make up a very interesting program.

The farmers' institute held here last week was probably the best and most successful ever held here. The attendance was excellent in spite of bad weather and roads, and all seemed much pleased with the addresses of the three speakers sent by the state department of the O. S. U. Miss O. Poland of Canfield and Dr. Campbell of Poland were local speakers who gave fine talks. F. P. Crouse was chosen president of the Association for 1921. M. L. Beard and C. L. Double, vice presidents and John Crouse secretary-treasurer.

Scarlet fever seems to be spreading in the school district in spite of the diligent attention of the county board of health. About half a dozen homes are quarantined. There are a number of cases of grippe and tonsillitis also.

Miss Ruth Workman began her duties as domestic science teacher in the high school, Monday. The second semester of the term began this week.

Mrs. G. M. Dewitt received the ladies of the Searchlight Literary Club in her home on Youngstown street Tuesday afternoon. An interesting literary program was presented.

The Evangelical congregation in North Lima will begin some repair work on the interior of their church about the first of February. During the period repairs are under way the school house will be used by the congregation for worship. It is probable that the work will take four weeks.

The church auditorium and Sunday school class rooms will be redecorated. Services will be held next Sunday morning as usual with prayer meeting each Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cover were visitors in the home of friends at Struthers, Sunday.

Russell Dilworth is ill with scarlet fever.

Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Chambers are pleasantly located at Sanford, in the southern part of Florida, according to word received by friends here. They were in Jacksonville until the latter part of last week. They are well and enjoying the warm climate and pleasant trip.

GREENFORD

Jan. 19.—I. N. Weikart underwent an operation in the Youngstown hospital for an abscess of the head last Thursday morning and apparently was not doing as well as his friends would wish but last Sunday he seemed much brighter.

Mrs. Wright Hendricks of Calla is teaching the primary room in Miss Esther Bush's place as she is assisting in caring for her father.

G. S. Eush died Monday evening about 7 o'clock. He was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Earle Rhodes, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rhodes of this place, who had been suffering ever since he had plural pneumonia eleven months ago, was taken to Youngstown last Thursday to have an X-ray taken but died before it was accomplished.

He was brought to his home Thursday night. He leaves his wife and two children, Raymond and Clara, his father and mother, two brothers, Warren of Salem and James of Youngstown, and one sister, Mrs. Nora Crist, of Alliance, to mourn his loss.

Funeral services were held at the home and burial in the Canfield cemetery.

Since Mrs. W. P. Coy returned home, Miss Anna Bush who made her home with Coy's, left for a few weeks' vacation.

Since Mrs. Viola Dressel's two sons have recovered from typhoid fever, Mrs. Dressel has again taken the Shirey twins to raise.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams on last Friday.

Prof. H. C. Seran and O. S. Walter attended the lecture, "What Fools We Mortals Are," given by Byron W. King in Canfield Saturday night. They say it was great.

Dr. P. H. Leimbach reports twins, a boy and a girl, born to Mr. and Mrs. Boart of Locust Grove, last Thursday.

Quite a number of people around here are suffering with hard colds bordering on grippe.

Mrs. Frank Clay, who was confined to the house all summer with heart trouble, is out again returning calls.

Mrs. Zier and son John of Vermilion are here visiting her brother, Dr. Leimbach, and family.

Mrs. Walter Hively and daughter, Myrtle, visited Mr. and Mrs. Royal Clay in Salem last Tuesday and then spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Hively, also of Salem.

The towns' trust trustees were in Youngstown Monday going over road matters.

Arthur Hively quit his job on the street car line a week ago.

GEEBURG

Jan. 19.—Roy Williams was in Canfield Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Connie Bunis spent Sunday at Mrs. Barringer's in Rosemont.

Urias Yeager, Arlie Miller and Sheriff Jacobs were in Ellsworth and Canfield Saturday.

Ray and Chaucer Leonard were visitors at H. H. McKenize's Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mont Jacobs and son spent Sunday afternoon in Warren.

Mrs. Laura Handwork is spending a few days at Friend Fenton's.